
[illegible]

MIN. LARRY FITTINGER of Chicago, who substituted as a dinner speaker, announced that the H. H. Bennett volume about the Tribune was the first of a series of books to be written in this series.

THE H. H. BENNETT along Fourth street in Chicago, which was the subject of the volume, has been abandoned by the building operators on the Palace building since last November, was closed yesterday for traffic.

MISS FRANK OVERLANDER of Hawell and Ryan, Inc. was quietly married by Rev. P. J. O'Connell of St. Michael's church, 1113 North Main, yesterday afternoon. They left on an evening train for a ten day visit in Chicago.

R. RIMLEY, general superintendent of the road, together with C. J. Engle, assistant superintendent, and C. W. Medley, chief of the road, will be headquarters of the same railway, with headquarters in Chicago, were in the city yesterday, and will be in the city tomorrow, to discuss the plans of the Chamber of Commerce relative to improvements which are to be made here.

WORD WAS RECEIVED yesterday by Executive Council of the Chamber of Commerce that the President of the League of Nations to Enforce Peace, announcing that Tulsa had been tentatively selected as the site of the League of Nations, and that the members of that organization in this section of the state. There is asked to prepare for the establishment of at least one hundred delegates.

CONCRETE IS being poured for the main

The Casino building, which is to be erected at Boston and Fenish, has engaged the contractors to finish the erection of the building by the first of August. Plans of the foundation while crews of men are at work making excavations for the remaining tiers.

DIRECTORS of the Chamber of Commerce and Federation of Allied Interests will meet at the Chamber of Commerce building this afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at which time plans will be made for satisfaction in the Exposition day parade, in which the Chamber of Commerce will be the highway department of the organization. It is expected by W. H. Harris, president of the Grand Trade Association and its president of the city of the Short-Term Railway association.

UNIFORMS were issued to the members of Automobile company No. 1, Oklahoma, and guard yesterday by Capt. H. G. Lawrence, commanding. And a detail of the same company were assigned to guard at the county fairgrounds in arranging the fire

[illegible]

THOMAS SMITHGUMMAN yesterday afternoon filed a petition in the district court for release from the county jail. Halliday, prosecuting attorney, is asked with W. M. (Fillingim) sheriff and J. W. (Large) county clerk, named as defendants. Unlawful imprisonment is charged. Smithgumman is being held in the county jail awaiting hear-

CLINTON STEVENS, colored, who appeared for trial in the police court yesterday afternoon following arrest on a charge of soliciting guests for a Main street rooming house, was fined $10, after he had posted a plea of guilty. He had been released a bond amounting to $195.

HOMER JOHNSON, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon in police court yesterday afternoon. He had been arrested on a charge violating a city ordinance forbidding so-liting for rooming houses in the city. His case was made light because of his plea of guilt.

LOW AND HARRISON forfeited a $5 bond for the municipal court yesterday. He had been arrested Monday evening charged with using 1927 a municipal fire hose.

RED CROSS headquarters will be closed today. The office force will participate in a Decoration day parade.

REMOVED signs is felt again. Many

On Tuesday afternoon he was charged with vagrancy. Testimony, voiced by two policemen, emboldened the information that Casella had been a source of much tribulation to the police department during the last several weeks. He was fined $100, the equivalent of one hundred days in jail, on request of Chief of Police Lyons, who formed the court that the prisoner was suffering from a repulsive disease and was dangerous to the city, the municipal judge ordered to permit the man to leave town at any date he is able to obtain railroad fare. The measure he is to be secluded from other prisoners.

A. L. MOOREHEAD drove over a fire hose in the vicinity of the Tulsa glass works yesterday evening. A fine of $5 was imposed yesterday afternoon in municipal court.

DAVE WAGNER was fined $10 in police court yesterday afternoon. He was charged with vagrancy.

Twin Souls.
"I hate the movies."
"I can't sell my scenarios, either."
Sour Owl.

THE AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK
THE PLANTERS NATIONAL BANK
THE UNION NATIONAL BANK
THE LIBERTY NATIONAL BANK
NATIONAL BANK

Twin Souls.
 "I hate the movies."
 "I can't sell my scenarios, either."
Sour Owl.